NEW FACILITIES ESTABLISHED FOR RECREATIONAL USE OF P.E. FACILITIES

The BULLETIN

The Physical Education Department announced this week that new hours have been established for the recreational use of the physical education facilities. Starting today, they will be available for students, faculty and staff on the following schedule:

Gymnasium, handball and tennis courts (Lockers and showers available.)

Weekdays - 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.
Weekends - 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Swimming Pool

Weekdays - Noon to 6:00 p.m. (Swimming allowed only in groups of three or more.)
Weekends - 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. (Lifeguard on duty.)

Swimmers are requested to bring their own suits and towels. Swim suits must be clean and contain no pockets. Cut-off pants or levis are not permitted in the pool.

Children using the College physical education facilities must be accompanied by a parent.

Physical education classes are scheduled every afternoon during the week and may restrict, but will not prohibit, the use of certain facilities or areas for general recreation.

NORTH PARK BLVD. North Park Boulevard widening and paving project
WORK COMPLETED was open to College traffic this week. The mile and a quarter of roadway, now four-lane with a median and curbs, cost $98,672 under a City of San Bernardino contract with the W. H. Whitlow Construction Co.

Striping of the lanes and a slight change in the stop sign area at State College Parkway will complete the work, which was done on schedule, according to Mr. Tom Barnett of the City Engineering Office.

Bids were received by the city last Tuesday on the irrigation system to be installed in the State College Parkway median between Kendall Dr. and North Park Blvd. With the completion of that work, the city will landscape the median.

"ROYAL GAMBIT" The cast and performance dates for "Royal Gambit," CAST ANNOUNCED the Fall presentation of the Players of the Pear Garden, have been announced by Asst. Prof. of Drama William Slout, who will direct.

Don Blair, well-known for his numerous roles in previous CSCSB productions, will star in the role of Henry VIII. Playing his wives will be Martha Slout as Catherine of Aragon; Diane Blair as Ann Boleyn; Charlotte Elder as Jane Seymour; Theresa Browne as Catherine Howard; Mary Barnes as Kate Parr; and Sally Fish as Ann of Cleves.

Performances will be given on November 15, 16 and 22, 23.
Tickets may be purchased now at the Humanities Division Office.

TRUSTEES ENDORSE The California State College Board of Trustees
TWO PROPOSITIONS has endorsed a "yes" vote on two issues on the November ballot, Propositions 3 and 6.

Proposition 3 would provide $200 million in bond funds for capital outlay needs of the California State Colleges and the University of California, plus $50 million for capital improvements in 1,943 substandard elementary and secondary school facilities.

Proposition 6 would exclude from the gross premium tax on insurance companies those premiums paid for employees "of educational institutions and nonprofit organizations engaged in scientific research." Approval of Proposition 6 "is essential to the retirement programs of nearly every accredited private college and university in California," the Trustees' resolution said.

FOURTH ANNUAL HALLOWEEN
CARNIVAL BEGINS AT NOON
TOMORROW; DANCE FOLLOWS

The College's Halloween Carnival followed by "The Great Pumpkin Dance" will take place tomorrow, near the new Gym area.

Ten booths, one a "Dunk Booth" featuring brave volunteers (some faculty and administrators) who will be doused by an accurate throw, are sponsored by student organizations for the carnival, which will begin at noon and continue until 9:00 p.m. Soft drinks, hot chocolate and food will be available. Everyone is welcome.

The dance, to be held from 8:00 p.m. to midnight, will be free to those in costume. A 50¢ admission per person will be charged for those not in costume. Prizes will be given for best costumed couple and individuals. "The Glass Cage" musical group will provide music. Faculty, staff and students are invited to attend.

MISS LINDA ARTH NAMED
INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS
CAMPUS REPRESENTATIVE

Miss Linda Arth, senior History major, has been named campus representative of the Office of International Programs of CSC.

Miss Arth, who spent her junior year at the University of Uppsala, Sweden, as a participant in the overseas program, will serve as Alumni Assistant, according to Dr. Robert Roberts, College representative of International Programs. She will inform other students about the program, answer questions, and assist them in making applications.

She will be located in room A-140 Tuesday and Thursday from 10:00 to 11:00 a.m. The program, which offers students the opportunity to study abroad for a year at one of twelve universities in eight countries, is state-supported.
